3 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

4 The Congress finds as follows:

5 (1) Foster care should be a temporary, short-
 6 term placement for children until they can be reuni-
 7 fied with their parents or placed with a safe, adop-
 8 tive family. However, the 532,454 children in foster

1 care on September 30, 2002, have been in foster
2 care for an average of almost 3 years (32 months).

3 (2) At the end of fiscal year 2002, the case
4 plan goal for over 34,000 foster care children was to 5 remain in foster care until they turned 18. These 6 children will leave the foster care system without the 7 stability and permanency of a family.

8 (3) Since 1995, the number of children adopted 9 with child welfare agency involvement has more than 10 doubled from 25,693 to 52,546 in 2002. Despite this 11 achievement, there were 129,262 children waiting to 12 be adopted on September 30, 2002. On average, 13 these children have been waiting in foster care for 14 almost 4 years (44 months).

15 (4) On March 26, 2004, the Department of 16 Health and Human Services completed an initial re-
17 view in every State of their child welfare programs.
18 No State passed this review which assessed whether 19 States were in compliance with Federal requirements
20 to ensure the safety, permanency, and well-being of 21 vulnerable children.

22 (5) On May 18, 2004, the nonpartisan Pew
23 Commission on Children in Foster Care composed of 24 former Members of Congress of both parties and 25 other child welfare experts recommended overhauling

1 the Nation’s foster care system to provide States a
 2 flexible, reliable source of Federal funding, as well
 3 as new options and incentives to seek safety and per-4 manence for children in foster care.

5 SEC. 3. REFERENCES.

6 Except as otherwise expressly provided, wherever in 7 this Act an amendment or repeal is expressed in terms
 8 of an amendment to, or repeal of, a section or other provi-
 9 sion, the amendment or repeal shall be considered to be 10 made to a section or other provision of the Social Security
 11 Act.

16 “SEC. 429. GRANTS FOR PROGRAMS FOR MENTORING CHIL-
 17 DREN OF PRISONERS.

18 “(a) FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.—

19 “(1) FINDINGS.—

20 “(A) In the period between 1991 and 21 1999, the number of children with a parent in-
 22 carcerated in a Federal or State correctional fa-
 23 cility increased by more than 100 percent, from 24 approximately 900,000 to approximately 25 2,000,000. In 1999, 2.1 percent of all children

1 in the United States had a parent in Federal or 2 State prison.

3 “(B) Prior to incarceration, 64 percent of 4 female prisoners and 44 percent of male pris-
5 oners in State facilities lived with their children.

6 “(C) Nearly 90 percent of the children of 7 incarcerated fathers live with their mothers,
8 and 79 percent of the children of incarcerated
9 mothers live with a grandparent or other rel-
10 ative.

11 “(D) Parental arrest and confinement lead
12 to stress, trauma, stigmatization, and separa-
13 tion problems for children. These problems are 14 coupled with existing problems that include pov-
15 erty, violence, parental substance abuse, high-
16 crime environments, intrafamilial abuse, child
17 abuse and neglect, multiple care givers, and/or 18 prior separations. As a result, these children
19 often exhibit a broad variety of behavioral, emo-
20 tional, health, and educational problems that 21 are often compounded by the pain of separa-
22 tion.

23 “(E) Empirical research demonstrates that
24 mentoring is a potent force for improving chil-
25 dren’s behavior across all risk behaviors affect-

1 ing health. Quality, one-on-one relationships
2 that provide young people with caring role mod-
3 els for future success have profound, life-chang-
4 ing potential. Done right, mentoring markedly
5 advances youths' life prospects. A widely cited
6 1995 study by Public/Private Ventures meas-
7 ured the impact of one Big Brothers Big Sis-
8 ters program and found significant effects in 9 the lives of youth—cutting first-time drug use
10 by almost half and first-time alcohol use by 11 about a third, reducing school absenteeism by 12 half, cutting assaultive behavior by a third, im-
13 proving parental and peer relationships, giving
14 youth greater confidence in their school work,
15 and improving academic performance.

16 “(2) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this section is 17 to authorize the Secretary to make competitive
18 grants to applicants in areas with substantial num-
19 bers of children of incarcerated parents, to support
20 the establishment or expansion and operation of pro-
